Rescue Workers Search Bay For Suicide Victim

RESCUE WORKERS drag the Bay of St. Louis Tuesday in attempts to find the body of Lemmie Horton of Slidell. Horton apparently committed suicide by jumping off the Bay Bridge late Tuesday afternoon.

HANCOCK COUNTY Sheriff Sylvan Ladner (with pad) questions Thomas Crawford, left, of Slidell who accompanied suicide victim, Lemmie Horton to the Gulf Coast. The two men were riding in Crawford's car over the Bay Bridge when Horton asked Crawford to stop the car and then jumped off the side of the bridge. The two men in the background are not identified.

Wednesday police were still searching for the body of a Slidell man who is believed to have committed suicide by jumping off the Bay Bridge Tuesday afternoon.

The man's companion, Thomas Crawford, 40, all so of Slidell, told police that earlier Tuesday he met Lemmie Horton in a Slidell bar. Horton, who was a construction worker in the Slidell area, asked Crawford to take him to Gulfport where he was to collect some money.

According to Crawford, when the two men arrived in Bay St. Louis, he stopped in an Enclave station for gas and Horton made a phone call. As they left, Horton gave Crawford a name and phone number in Keathle, La., and told him "see if this number if anything happens to me."

About half way across the bridge, Crawford said Horton asked him to stop the car saying, "There's something wrong with my heart."

When the car came to a stop, Horton said, "This is the end of me. I'm going to jump." Crawford said he leaped out of the car to stop him but before he could Horton had jumped over the bridge railing and disappeared beneath the choppy waters.

Crawford vainly attempted to flag down a passing vehicle but he said people kept driving by him. Finally a man in a truck stopped and on hearing his story notified police in Bay St. Louis about 3 p.m.

Crawford, who works in Slidell Memorial Hospital, said

Horton had been a patient at the hospital for some time. He described him as a "big man", weighing about 300 pounds and in his mid-forties. Crawford said as far as he knew Horton had no family in the Slidell area. Bay St. Louis police and sheriff's deputies attempting to notify the person Horton mentioned in Keathle, La., found there is no such number and apparently no one by that name in either town.

Crawford told an Echo reporter that as far as he knew, Horton had no reason to commit suicide nor had given him any indication Tuesday of contemplating such an act.

Sheriff Sylvan Ladner, Bay St. Louis police chief Robert Goodall with members of their respective departments controlled traffic on the bridge for five hours as three boats vainly searched the waters around the bridge for the body.

Other law enforcement personnel involved included Wildlife and Fisheries boats and personnel, highway patrol officers, and Pass Christian fire and police officers. Wade Gulow, Harrison County Civil Defense director worked on one of the boats for several hours in the search.

Dragging operations were halted at 8 p.m. Tuesday night and resumed early Wednesday morning, but by press time efforts to find the body were still unsuccessful.

Supervisors Delay Decision On Gulf Regional District

February 1 is the deadline for county and municipal authorities to make a decision on inclusion in the proposed Gulf Regional District, supervisors were told at a recessed meeting Monday.

Board attorney Ruble Griffin briefly outlined some of the ramifications of participation in the district, which in concept is greatly similar to the Gulf Planning Commission. Griffin also pointed out that the final decision for adoption of the plan would have to come through public vote.

The board asked Griffin to Supervisors passed a motion at Monday's meeting to make a $50,000 short term loan from Hancock Bank, to cover deficits in the county General Fund, the Pauper's Fund and the Health and Sick Fund. Chancery Clerk Rutherford explained that the loan will be repaid from anticipated ad valorem taxes gather more detailed information on the plan for consideration at a meeting next Monday. Waveland administrators have already adopted the proposal opening it to public vote, and Bay St. Louis officials will meet Monday for a decision.

John H. Geiger, national commander of the American Legion was introduced to the board and spoke briefly on his impressions of the Gulf Coast area. Geiger is on an official visit to the state and was accompanied by an aide, Ralph Bates and Ray Knight of Jackson. Geiger said he was impressed by the amount of rehabilitation that has been accomplished in the area following Camille. He extended an invitation to supervisors to attend a dinner that evening in Gulfport. Chancery Clerk John Rutherford and supervisors James Travira, H. (Bully) Zengerling and Alton Keller are members of American Legion Post 139.

The board authorized advertising for bids to purchase a draft-arm assembly for a motor grader, at the request of beat two supervisor Alton Keller. Bids will be opened March 6.

On the recommendation of the county welfare board, supervisors passed a resolution to publicly commend Mrs. Arnette Giles for outstanding work with the Welfare Department in taking homeless children on a foster home basis, as well as countless other services to the community. Mrs. Giles will go to Washington, D.C. in February as a finalist for the National Center for Voluntary Action.

Cash Stolen

From Law Offices

Approximately $750 in cash was stolen from Favre and Griffin law offices on Main St. Monday, according to Hancock County Sheriff Sylvan Ladner.

Sheriff Ladner said the theft was discovered about 8 a.m. Monday morning. A back door had been pried open to gain access into the building. Ruble Griffin, one of the firm's partners told investigating deputies that shelves, desks, files and records had been ransacked presumably in search of money, as no other articles were reported missing.

Sheriff Ladner, assisted by deputies Lathan Garriaga, Fairley Nicolas and special agent Ronald Peterson are investigating fingerprints and other evidence gathered from the office.

Bay Council
Will Decide
On GRD

The Bay St. Louis city commission council will meet Monday to consider the possibility of joining the Gulf Regional District. The council met last Thursday but could not reach a decision on the issue.

Should the council decide to join the district, a special referendum will be held to allow the voters of Bay St. Louis to voice their opinion. If the council is opposed to entering the district, a petition must be presented by the voters challenging the decision of the council.

The board of supervisors will also announce their intentions on the Gulf Regional District Monday. Waveland Mayor and Board of Aldermen passed a resolution recently in favor of joining the GRD.

Street Assessment Must Be Paid--Attorney General

According to a decision by State Attorney General A. F. Summer, there is no way under state statutes that Bay St. Louis property owners can avoid paying the ten-year interest on the special street assessment.

By direction of city tax collector Andre Arceneaux, city attorney Gerald Gex appealed to the attorney general for a solution to the problem.

In a letter dated November 16, Gex stated: "I have been requested by the Tax Commissioner of the City of Bay St. Louis to write to you for an opinion dealing with the payment in installments on the special street improvement bond issue, which was passed in the City of Bay St. Louis and upon which payments on said assessment will be delinquent as of January 1, 1972."

Gex referred to state code section 3684-07, which states in part, "Any property owner who has neglected to pay his assessment in installments, shall have the right at any time to pay the balance of the assessment against this property in full, but in so doing he shall be required to pay all interest which would have accrued thereon had same not been paid until its maturity."

The letter continues, "I would appreciate it if you would be so kind as to advise me as to whether or not there is some way that we can avoid making the people pay a tax set up on a ten year basis, if they pay same prior to the termination of that ten year period."

The attorney general's reply is as follows: "I am of the opinion that, based on a provision earlier stated in said Section 3684-07, special assessments, as mentioned in this statute, may not be paid in full without paying all interest for the full tenure of the indebtedness. The provisions of this section state as follows:

"All special assessments levied under the provisions of this act, unless otherwise provided by the governing authorities, shall become due and shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality...

...in full within ninety (90) days from the date of confirmation. Any property owner who shall not have taken an appeal from the assessment, shall, upon failure to pay said assessment in full within ninety (90) days from the date of confirmation, be deemed to have elected to pay said assessment in installments as herein provided, and he shall be deemed to have admitted the legality of the assessment and shall thereupon waive all right to contest the validity thereof."

"Therefore, unless the property owner so assessed pays the assessment in full within ninety (90) days, he must then either pay the assessment in installments and/or make a lump sum payment which shall include all interest which would have accrued thereon had same not been paid until its maturity. Also, I am of the opinion that the municipality cannot waive this specific statutory requirement."

When I-10 Opens

Merchants Concerned Over County's Future

A comparatively small group of area retail merchants meeting Tuesday night sparked a movement which the group hopes will grow like the proverbial snowball.

Impetus of the meeting, spearheaded by Tommy Kidd of Waveland, is the awareness of local merchants and business people that the completion of I-10 will pose a serious threat to the Gulf Coast in general and Hancock County in particular.

"The time to do something about it is right now," Kidd said addressing the more than 30 persons present, "because once I-10 is open to Mobile, East-bound and West-bound traffic will completely bypass the Gulf Coast."

Ideas and opinions were exchanged in an informal open session at the beginning of the meeting as those present were in accord on the basic problems but were attempting to define workable solutions.

Some of the forays of action proposed were erection of a tourist information center on I-10 between the Pearl River

Bridge and highway 607; highway signs publicizing the coast placed at I-10 turnoffs to entice travelers to this area; and a suggestion to have the highway department designate highway 90 as a primary highway rather than I-10.

August Seaford, Bay St. Louis restaurant owner told the gathering that he felt installation of prominently placed signs, attractively landscaped at highway turnoffs should be considered for immediate action by the group to bring traffic to this area now. He also proposed meeting with Hancock and Harrison county supervisors, as well as representatives of the two-county

Chambers of Commerce to enlist their involvement in the promotion of the coast as a tourist attraction.

T. D. Ashman noted that the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce was meeting that night at Chamber offices and might be contacted that evening in regard to the group's objectives. Bay St. Louis Commissioner Andre Arceneaux, the only city or county official present, proffered the suggestion that the group first form a committee to contact other organizations and governing officials; then draw up a resolution specifying the merchants' aims.

A committee of six members named, including Mrs. Connie Stanton, Earl Hotard, August Seaford, Mrs. Marion Parker, T. D. Ashman and Tommy Kidd. Judy Watson was included as an alternate to the committee.

The group will meet again Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Trapani's on Highway 90. All area merchants as well as civic organizations will be sent invitations of the meeting. Kidd said that the meeting is also open to all county residents interested in promoting tourist trade in this county.

On an invitation from Chamber president Perry Gibson, the newly-formed committee then met with the Chamber board. Dialogue with that group resulted in the Chamber adopting a resolution setting forth three main proposals for action, and the resolution to be made available to other public officials and organizations. The resolution is printed in its entirety on page 2.

RETAIL MERCHANTS in Hancock County met Tuesday night to work out plans for the county's future when I-10 opens. When completed, the Interstate will offer a direct route from New Orleans to Mobile, completely bypassing the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Changes Made In Sheriff's Office

Recent state legislation governing county sheriff's departments has brought about a re-structuring of departmental operation, mandatory for all sheriffs assuming office this year.

Under the old system sheriffs and deputies were paid on a fee basis rather than salaried, which opened areas of sometimes excessive remuneration and at all times, uncontrolled operation.

In addition, neither the sheriff nor his deputies were required to attend state sponsored law enforcement training schools regularly offered free of charge to all law enforcement personnel within the state. No restrictions were placed on the size of his staff, nor the number of deputies patrolling, other than by the board of supervisors under whose jurisdiction the sheriff functioned.

According to Sylvan Ladner, sheriff for Hancock County, the new system allows for fixed monthly salaries for the sheriff and all personnel, as well as a specified number of staff. Ladner added that state law calls for three full-time deputies for patrol plus one relief deputy, giving each man a six-day work week.

Four paid auxiliary deputies are authorized to serve primarily as radio operators. A janitor and one prison guard complete the staff.

Ladner further stated that under the new regulations all deputies are required to complete five weeks of law enforcement courses within the first year of office. The sheriff must attend five weeks within the first six months. Both the sheriff and his deputies must attend, as well, refresher courses throughout every subsequent year of their tenure in the department.

RAYBORN APPOINTED
Talmadge Rayborn, executive director of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, has been appointed to the Louisiana-Mississippi Regional Export Expansion Council. Two other men, both from New Orleans, were also appointed according to an announcement by Secretary of Commerce Maurice Stans.

Rayborn and Marcel Damians and Dr. Richard G. Arreola will comprise one of 42 such groups that advise Stans on U.S. export promotion.

Brother Canislaus, director of the reading program at St. Louis High School, will attend the International Conference for Learning Difficulties at Atlantic City, N.J., during the first two days of the conference. The main topic of the conference will deal with specific disabilities which impede the development of potential. The children considered have above average intelligence but are significantly higher impaired by perceptual, coordinative, and functional dysfunctions. The conditions often result in perceptual handling injury, minimal dysfunction, dysdevelopmental aphasia. Brother Canisius Schell, S.C., director of the elementary reading program at St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis will attend the International Conference of the Association for Children with Learning Difficulties. This conference will be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, during the first week of February.

The main topics of the conference will deal with children with specific learning disabilities which interfere with development of their full potential. The children to be considered have average to above average intelligence. Unlike "retarded" children, their intellectual potential is significantly higher, but may be impaired by perceptual, conceptual, coordinative or related dysfunctions. They include conditions often referred to as perceptual handicaps, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia and developmental aphasia.

Brother Canisius is a past president of the local chapter of the International Reading Association and is a state and national member of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

An important message for people who prepare their own income tax returns.

Maybe you've been cheating yourself all these years.

Every year, between January and April, all about deductions for child care or millions of people sit down to do battle with Uncle Sam. Some are "self-styled" accountants. Others think they can save a few dollars doing it themselves—so why not?

The sad truth is, however, no matter what their reason was for starting many of them and the same. On the short end.

You see, when it comes to income taxes, amateurs should depend on H&R Block. We have all the facilities to help you make "income tax time" a pleasant experience. To begin with, H&R Block now has over 6,000 conveniently located offices manned by thousands of specially trained personnel who are anxious to help you. Report from capitol

Senator James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) said today he is "extremely optimistic" that his bill to increase social security payments will be approved quickly by Congress.

Eastland said his proposal providing an across-the-board five percent hike in benefits has met with "overwhelming approval" in the Senate. "I am confident that Congress will act with the sense of urgency that is demanded to meet the situation," the Senator said.

In addition, the Mississippi lawmaker has called on the Senate to "fully explore" the possibilities of providing a permanent cost-of-living "escalator clause" in the legislation. Such a measure would automatically increase benefits to keep pace with rising consumer prices.

In seeking approval of the five percent increase, Eastland pointed to millions of Americans who rely upon social security for the basic necessities of life. "These people are now looking to us," he told the Senate.

"Their purchasing power has been steadily eroded by the cruellest and most unfair tax of all - inflation," he added.

"They have worked and earned the right to a decent standard of living in their retirement - yet they are being robbed daily by the decrease in the value of their social security dollar."

The increases in social security which were proposed last year are contained in a welfare reform package which has become highly controversial. Eastland's bill would sever the social security hike from the welfare legislation, which is now bogged down in the Senate Finance Committee. It would make the new rate retroactive to December 1, 1971.

"We do not today know when this welfare reform package will become law," Eastland said. "While Congress debates the merits of a highly complex overhaul of welfare, millions of Americans on social security face an uncertain future in a world of ever-increasing prices and over-declining value of their dollar," he added.

"It is only reasonable that we sever the non-controversial and urgently-needed social security legislation from the highly controversial and long-delayed legislation on welfare reform."

Eastland called for "urgent, immediate action" on his increase-then added Congress should go a step further this year and provide for automatic cost-of-living increases in social security. "As it is now, these people must come to Congress when prices go up and the dollar value goes down," he said.

"An increase in social security benefits now requires the time-consuming process of study and the lengthy route of legislation before it can become reality. The end result is that those for whom social security payments mean their very livelihood face delay and uncertainty as they await their increases."

Eastland said such legislation would "trigger an automatic increase in benefits whenever the rising cost of living demands it. Action by Congress on this proposal would insure that persons on social security 'do not again face this dilemma,'" he added.

From the 30's until 1947, lumbering proceeded at a frantic pace along the Gulf Coast and inland for a hundred miles or more as the longleaf pines were mowed down by the thousands. High sawmills and planing mills were put up at a score of sites, and bustling villages sprang up around them; dozens of smaller plants were operating, often almost under the eaves of the big mills.

One traveler observed that there was one sawmill and a turpentine distillery to every three miles of road between Hattiesburg and Gulfport, and along one railroad only sixty miles in length more than fifty sawmills were in operation.

As the loggers cut ever deeper into the woods, rail lines were extended from the big mills, sometimes as far as thirty miles, and more villages came into being along them, and some of the lines eventually became common carriers.

Five main railroads were built through the pine country from 1880 to 1910 to handle the lumber trade.

To protect their investments, huge blocks of capital supplies by the banks, the big mill owners bought up huge tracts of forest land, and within a short time most of the pine lands were in the hands of just a few operators. One man acquired 721,000 acres, two others 400,000 acres each, and Edward Hines had 240,000 acres in Hancock and Pearl River counties.

The sudden and rapid development of the industry in a sparsely populated country created a great shortage of skilled labor. Most of the hundreds of big mills brought in thousands of expert mill operators from the white pine districts of the North, and most of the local white men and negroes were employed as laborers at first, but as the years went by many of these men became proficient as mill operators; in time, as many of the smaller mills were forced out of business by running out of timberland, their crews were gradually absorbed by the big mills until at last there were too many skilled operators and not enough common laborers, and wages boomed for all classes of work.

This happy condition lasted until 1947, when the famous panic, and subsequent depression of that year suddenly turned paradise into a hell for the workers and merchants of southern Mississippi. Mills closed down by the scores, and even the biggest operators salvaged what they could save and ran for cover. Foreigners who had been brought in for the mills quickly abandoned their stacks and fled for home (those from German and Scandinavian countries already had gone when they discovered they could not get beer and wine in dry Mississippi). Wages in some cases fell as low as eight cents an hour. It has been said that at this time nearly sixty-five percent of the people were dependent to some degree on the lumber industry.

But the mills were gone now, though some of them held on until the '30's; and southern Mississippi was like a battleground, almost denuded of its beautiful tall pines and with nothing left but ugly stumps, deserted buildings and houses, and the money that had poured into the pockets of a few greedy men transferred to banks in other parts of the country. It has taken nearly fifty years for this section to recover some of its former life and activity, and it will never regain its old beauty and peace and charm.

To Join Or Not

On Monday, both the board of supervisors and the Bay St. Louis commission council will consider the possibility of joining the Gulf Regional District. On the surface, the concept of a regional district appeals to the Gulf Coast communities. Unification and working toward a common goal would benefit our county and our state.

However, the Gulf Regional District is not the answer. Why create another agency when there is the Gulf Regional Planning Commission? Why not utilize the experience of Mr. Diferrent and give the Planning Commission additional power and responsibility. Could not the concept of Gulf Regional Planning Commission be combined with the ideas of a regional district to form ONE agency?

Utopian benefits are described by proponents of the plans. Visions of federally-funded sugar plums dance in their heads as they prophesy an end to the county's problems with the coming of the Gulf Regional District. These same men fail to mention the additional taxation that may be imposed on the already overburdened taxpayer or the fact that it will weaken the powers of the local municipal officials.

If adopted, there is one thing the Gulf Regional District will do. It will create more jobs for more people who will shuffle more paper... paper which will be used to satisfy the voracious appetites of the GREAT PAPER EATERS in Valhalla, D.C.

Please do yourself a favor. Get out in front of your home and take a look - Just what do you see? A house sitting on a lawn with trees, flowers and shrubs planted around. Does it look like you would like to look? Are the trees and shrubs in the right places? Does your yard area make an attractive frame for your home?

If your answer to any one of these questions was no, we just may be able to help you. On February 10, 1972 at 9:00 a.m. there will be a Landscape Workshop held in the Agricultural Center Building on Necaise Avenue.

Trumpets In The Morning

By Perry D. Neal, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Bay St. Louis.

No, no, I don't mean there are only six days in a week. You will understand "Sunday never comes" much better, I believe, after I introduce to you my family.

My brother Henry is in the eleventh grade. He plays on the football team and works on weekends, even Sundays, at a service station.

Karen, my sister, is the oldest except for Dad and Mother. She attends the community college in town. Next year she wants to go to New York and attend a school that teaches you how to act. Every weekend she attends two and sometimes three movies, she says in order to learn how she can become a good actress.

Mother says she has her finger in too many pies. I think she means that she is too busy. Well, she does prepare our meals, wash and iron, as well as keep house. She is an officer in the P.T.A. and belongs to a club just for women. Last night I heard her mention that she was to be the chairman to raise money for some good cause. The only time she can visit in all the homes is on Sunday.

Daddy is an executive. I think that means he is a boss. He does a lot of flying. Sometimes we don't see him for a week or two. He says he has to work hard to provide for us. He is going to a conference - you know, a meeting - in a few minutes. The church bell is ringing now.

So you see, Sunday never really comes to our house. I know Henry needs spending money, Karen wants to be a big success. Mother desires to do her share in the community. Daddy must make enough money for us to buy food, clothing, and all the other things.

I hope Sunday will always come at your house. Then you will have a home. There is a lot of difference, you know. Oh yes, I should introduce myself. I am Philip. I am ten years old and in the fifth grade. I am going to Sunday School without breakfast and without my family.

HOME GARDENING

If you plan to have a full spring and summer garden this year, you had better get busy right now. It is time to get the seed in the ground for some of those good early vegetables.

But before you start planting or even ordering your seed, make a garden plan. Draw off the rows. List the vegetables you want to plant. Decide how many feet of row for each. Put this down on paper so that you can refer to it during the year.

Some of the vegetables that can be planted now include carrots, leaf and head lettuce, onions, Irish potatoes, spinach, turnips, cabbage, mustard, English peas and radishes.

WEEED CONTROL

Check herbicide prices before planning your weed control program. Some herbicides will do the job for you that are less costly than others.

Karmex is one. It will be offered to farmers this year at greatly reduced prices. It gives a broad spectrum of weed control, but it is not the answer in all cases.

Karmex is weak in situations where the soil has a high clay content and you have heavy pasture from deep rooted broadleaf weeds like teasel and cocklebur. In these cases you would probably use Telvar or Colotan.

Under conditions of most medium textured soils and average weed pressure, Karmex will give good preemergence and postemergence control and offer a big savings.

DAIRY NOTES

If you expect your automobile to run properly, you know that it must be serviced regularly. Milking equipment also needs to be serviced regularly.

Your milking equipment should be thoroughly checked at least every six months by qualified servicemen with proper equipment.

If your equipment is not functioning properly it can cause injury to the cow's udder, it can result in over milking or under milking and the actual milking could take longer.

You can check some of the items yourself like the belts, pulleys, oil supplies and vacuum lines.

SOCIAL SECURITY

If you are receiving social security checks and change your address, notify both the post office and the social security office. By reporting your change of address as early as possible to both agencies, you will avoid a delay or interruption of your check. For further details check with your local social security office.

Nereids Stages Sixth Ball

St. Joseph's Memorial Hall was transformed into a three-tinged circus, a replica of the Barnum-Bailey Big Top, when the Krewe of Nereids staged its sixth annual carnival ball Friday night with Haskell L. Doyle of Waveland, reigning as King Nereus VI.

Queen Doris VI, whose identity along with identities of her maids and Krewe remain a secret, was presented by the Ball Captain.

She wore a dazzling tiered satin gown in shades of yellow and orange with hot pink predominating. Diamond-shaped appliques embellished with rhinestones trimmed the overskirt while the hemline was heavily beaded with rhinestones. Her satin mantle, in matching shades, was trimmed with beaded motifs identical to those on her dress. A tall rhinestone studded crown with hot pink feathered plumes and a jeweled scepter completed her ensemble.

The Captain of the Ball wore a fitted costume of iridescent sequined cloth fashioned with a tuxedo style. Bodies with rhinestone lapels and a top hat trimmed with stones in a filigree design and white plumes. She carried a rhinestone crop.

Maids Elena the Great, representing the fabulous Flamingo Fire Dancer, wore a red sequined cloth costume trimmed in rhinestones with high matching feathered plume headpiece. She carried a red feathered plume.

Maids Sawzels the Beautiful, portraying the famed Egyptian veil dancer, was costumed in an Egyptian styled dress in shades of yellow and orange with matching headpiece and chiffon veil. She carried an orange plume.

Maids Margot the Magnificent, depicting the Darling of the aerial high wires, wore a metallic blue costume trimmed in silver. A sunburst design of sequins and rhinestones trimmed the back panel. A matching plume headpiece completed her attire and she carried a blue plume.

Maids Madam Alexandra, representing the Equestrian Master Supreme, wore a peacock sole flowing costume sprinkled with semi-precious stones and matching headpiece. She carried lavender and pink plumes.

Maids Scherazade, portraying the alluring Persian dancer, wore a shimmering metallic cloth costume fashioned with a front panel of gold and purple embroidered in rhinestones and sequins with matching plume headpiece and carried a purple plume.

Maids Emerald Goddess, as the wild game trailer from the deep jungle of Zambia, was costumed in an emerald green outfit fashioned with a fitted bodice and flowing skirt. She carried a green feathered plume and wore a matching headpiece.

Trainbearers, Misses Carrie Lynn Braland, Anne Frances Schott, Melissa Ann Maggio and Ann Elizabeth Vogt, wore page style costumes in colors matching the queen's attire.

Parade Captain, costumed as a ringmaster, was escorted during the grand march by Parade Marshal Fred Bourgoole.

Dukes were William E. Braland, Albert N. Grass, T. Dixon Ashman, James R. Kelly, Alvin Bernard and Clifford P. Vogt.

Doug Douglas, choreographer of New Orleans, featured dancer, was assisted in the entertainment and closing tableau by Krewe members.

Norris V. Fitzmorris, New Orleans, served as narrator. After the ball the King entertained with a party in O.L.G. Parish Hall. The queen's dinner-dance followed at the National Guard Armory.

W. Ray Gordon was general chairman of the ball. Serving on the various committees were Joseph B. Colson, chairman court committee, assisted by Cornelius Herlihy, Merlin Markel, John Gallagher, Henry Develle, Joseph Griffin and James Travira. Serving with Dr. M.L. Dodson, reception chairman, were Harold Torgersen, Harold Zimmerman, Joseph Servat, Lester Haverly, Adam Ouvre, Edward Brennan, George Cleary and Fred Lampa.

Bayou Caddy Restoration Nears Completion

by Adoree Shortle
Echo staff writer

A project to restore docking and recreation facilities at Bayou Caddy is nearing completion, according to Port and Harbor officials.

The development project was initiated by county supervisors about a year ago in an effort to dredge and clear the bayou of Camille deposited debris. Since the storm, the many commercial fishing boats operating out of the bayou as well as privately owned small craft have been hard pressed for mooring space or protected docking areas. Often boat owners were forced to tie-up two or three together at the bayou's bank, affording no stable anchorage in bad weather.

Supervisors appealed to the Corps of Engineers for the initial dredging to clear the bayou and were told that a main stipulation for Corps participation was that the project would benefit the community as a whole.

On assurance that, properly cleared, the area would be developed into a fishing, boating and recreation facility the Corps agreed to assume the dredging contract. A rather unique situation evolved at this point which resulted in Hancock County lending the federal government $30,100!

Since negotiations for the dredging contract were consummated at the end of the federal government's fiscal year the Corps of Engineers didn't have sufficient funds to let the contract. Rather than delay the project another half a year, the county provided the above amount of money from Port and Harbor funds, the loan to be repaid as soon as federal appropriations were secured.

The Bayou Caddy channel was dredged from a mile and a half in the Gulf to the same distance inland, as far as Bordages Fishing Camp. Navigational aids were also provided by the Corps.

In the second phase, the county acquired about three acres of land, adjacent to the bayou and surrounding two of the several finger slips running inland from the bayou. Under Port and Harbor funding and supervision, the acreage is being developed to include dock areas built at the north side of the bayou between the two slips, a service road leading from the beach to the docks for commercial boat off-loading, and a concrete block building providing office space, rest rooms and a concession stand. Two smaller buildings will house a water pump and sewerage treatment.

The smaller slip, about 160 feet long, will be reserved for pleasure boat mooring and the larger slip nearer the Gulf will be open only to commercial boats. At present this slip has a docking capacity for about 10 such craft. A public boat launch has also been constructed.

The dock also has a potential for additional income to the county through a seven cents per sack oyster tax levied by the state, but returnable to the county by request.

The entire development project will be completed at an overall cost of $87,576, under contract with H. E. Wilson Contractors of Pass Christian. According to project engineer Thomas Geiger, the Corps of Engineers' acceptance of Bayou Caddy as an official waterway obligates that agency for all future maintenance of the bayou, relieving the county or the Port and Harbor of the responsibility.

The 1972 Mississippi Legislature convened and was administered the oath of office on January 4, 1972. Mr. John R. Junkin was returned as "Speaker of the House."

I have been placed on the following committees: Game and Fish, Conservation - Water Resources, Penitentiary and Judiciary "B". Being on these committees will help in working for the people and betterment of Hancock County, yet preserving the natural beauty and resources that are so plentiful.

I have co-sponsored a bill to have a degree granting institution of Higher Learning to be located on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

This Saturday, January 29, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., I will be at the Ramada Inn to meet the people that do not know me, so that we may become better acquainted and to discuss the present legislature, or just to have a social gathering. Each week I plan to go to a different section of the county. (February 5 - Pearl River, and February 12 - Kiln.

I am particularly grateful for the tremendous support you have given me over the past years as your Beat 4 Justice of the Peace, and trust that you will see fit to continue this support as your Representative.

Resolution Adopted By Retail Merchants And Chamber

WHEREAS, the construction of the Interstate System through Mississippi has been under construction for several years and specifically, I-10 and that said Highway runs Eastward and Westward through Southern Mississippi and will cause the through traffic to bypass the Mississippi Gulf Coast and

WHEREAS, said Interstate System is completed to Mississippi Highway 607 (Mississippi Test Facility Road) and that completion of I-10 from that point to U.S. Highway 49 in Harrison County is to be completed in the near future and that there is speculation that said section will be opened to through traffic thereby bypassing Hancock County and Western Harrison County and that the plans indicate that it will be several years before I-10 is completed through Mississippi, and

WHEREAS, the bypassing of Hancock and Western Harrison Counties will inflict serious economic harm to said area in a loss of sales tax and other tourist revenues and create a traffic congestion problem on U.S. Highway 49 through downtown Gulfport and jeopardize the safety of motorists and pedestrians and cause property damages, and

WHEREAS, a 4-lane system has already been constructed and in a good state of repair so that the traffic can flow safely and swiftly from Interstate I-10 at the intersection of Mississippi Highway 607 (Mississippi Test Facility Road) through the Mississippi Gulf Coast utilizing U.S. Highway 90 and will further provide the tourist business to said area, and

WHEREAS, there are plans that a Hospitality Booth is being constructed between Mississippi Highway 607 (Mississippi Test Facility Road) and Mississippi Highway 493 (Kila Road) and that the construction of said Hospitality Booth is not advantageous to the Hancock County Area and that said site should be between the Mississippi-Louisiana State Line and U.S. Highway 607 (Mississippi Test Facility Road) so that Hancock County and Western Harrison County can receive full benefit of the Booth, now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce go on record as favoring the policy of allowing through traffic to continue to flow through the Mississippi Gulf Coast as same are routed at this time and that no further portion of I-10 be opened to through traffic until such time as I-10 is completed through Mississippi,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the location of the Hospitality Booth be changed from the area that it is now planned to the area between the Mississippi-Louisiana State Line and Mississippi Highway 607 (Mississippi Test Facility Road), and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the traffic to Diamondhead be allowed to continue to flow on I-10 and that officials be encouraged to allow traffic within the cities to utilize said I-10 but in no event to allow same open to through traffic, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be furnished to all members of the press, radio and television networks, interested public officials and organizations.

Seven more reports have been given during the past week to business establishments in Bay St. Louis whose premises present an unsightly and generally disorderly appearance. This raises to sixteen the total reports issued since January 1 of this year.

The police department reports no arrests made but these businesses are definitely in violation of the city's anti-litter ordinance according to chief of police Robert Goodsell.

Those businesses whose owners have been notified of such violations are being given plenty of time to clear and clean their premises. When it is found that no action has been taken then arrests will be made, says Mayor Warren Carver.

Civil Defense Head Addresses Meeting

J.R. Laviole, Bay St. Louis Civil Defense Director, guest speaker Thursday night at Our Lady of the Gulf P.T.O. meeting was introduced by Hank Stockman, School Board member.

Mr. Laviole presented an informative discussion on civil defense and distributed information pamphlets on storms, hurricanes, tornadoes and other disasters and above ground fallout shelters.

Mr. Laviole, in turn, introduced Gus Uram, evacuation chief, who gave information on the location of evacuation centers. A movie on hurricanes and the dangers of fallout was shown. Mrs. John Selanna, civil defense coordinator for O.L.G. will hold classes each day for a week for the students.

Very Rev. Gregory Johnson, pastor OLG Church, offered the opening prayer and Charles Staehle, PTO president, conducted the business session.

Reports were heard from the various committees. Edward Murtagh, carnival ball ticket chairman, announced tickets for the event are now available, and, as there is a limited number, he asked that they be purchased as soon as possible. Father Johnson suggested

Hille-Scafidi Vows Exchanged

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding at 2 o'clock in the afternoon January 7 of Miss JoAnn Marie Scafidi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Scafidi of Bay St. Louis, and Irwin Eugene Hille, son of Mrs. Ben Hille Sr., also of this city, and the late Mr. Hille.

Rev. George Kitchin, associate pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a lace gown fashioned with a tiered lace hoop skirt and fitted bodice embroidered in seed pearls. Her tiered veil of illusion was attached to a crown studded with pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Mrs. Marvin Kranke, maid of honor and Mrs. Johnny Harville, of Pearlinton, bridesmaid, wore scarlet red taffeta gowns trimmed in gold and carried bouquets of red and white carnations. Misses Shari and Donna Scafidi served as trainbearers. They wore jade green dresses with silver trim and carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the private dining room at Wheel Inn Restaurant.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a white suit.

The bride attended St. Joseph Academy and graduated from Bay St. Louis Senior High School.

The groom, a graduate of St. Stanislaus, attended General Motors School in New Orleans and is a member of Hille Clubmobile Inc.

The couple will make their home in Bay St. Louis.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Viola Fox, Silsbee, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kennedy and family, Tampa, Fla.; William J. Kennedy, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis and family, Houma, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gowan, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hille, New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomas, Arabi, La.

Hille-Scafidi Vows Exchanged

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding at 2 o'clock in the afternoon January 7 of Miss JoAnn Maria Scafidi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Scafidi of Bay St. Louis, and Irwin Eugene Hille, son of Mrs. Ben Hille Sr., also of this city, and the late Mr. Hille.

Rev. George Klitchin, associate pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a lace gown fashioned with a tiered lace hoop skirt and fitted bodice embroidered in seed pearls. Her tiered veil of illusion was attached to a crown studded with pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Mrs. Marvin Krankey, maid of honor and Mrs. Johnny Harville, of Pearlinton, bridesmaid, wore scarlet red taffeta gowns trimmed in gold and carried bouquets of red and white carnations. Misses Shari and Donna Scafidi served as trainbearers. They wore jade green dresses with silver trim and carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the private dining room at Wheel Inn Restaurant.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a white suit.

The bride attended St. Joseph Academy and graduated from Bay St. Louis Senior High School.

The groom, a graduate of St. Stanislaus, attended General Motors School in New Orleans and is a member of Hille Oldsmobile Inc.

The couple will make their home in Bay St. Louis.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Viola Fox, Slidell, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kennedy and family, Tampa, Fla.; William J. Kennedy, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hille and family, Houma, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Govan, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hille, New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomas, Arabi, La.

Preparations Made For St. Monica Tea

by Joe Pilet, Public Relations, Trinity Episcopal Church

Acclaimed a major social event of each season, the St. Monica Silver Tea was established more than a quarter of a century ago by Mrs. H.R. Kilpatrick of the Pink Cottage on Japonica Drive in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Lella Ahy-French of Natchez and Pass Christian. In the early days a capella choir from local colored churches stood beneath the magnolia trees in the garden and sang spirituals and selections from Stephen Foster as a tribute to the Old South as it was known to Mrs. Ahy-French. The popularity of the tea grew as the populations of the Gulf Coast Community increased. It was necessary to receive guests in the more spacious Trinity Episcopal rectory with the late Mrs. Durrie B. Hardin serving as a charming and gracious hostess. Mrs. Hardin lost her life during Hurricane Camille when the magnificent old rectory was destroyed.

Following the hurricane, on February 13 in 1970, Mrs. Stanford Morse opened her home and hosted the tea in order that the tradition might continue unbroken, although extensive storm damages had been done to her home and the slate roofing was still under repairs. The success of the tea was outstanding and established the current procedure of selecting each year a different and interesting home as an added attraction for guests. Last year the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Hammet was the site of the delightful gathering.

Miller-Kiilsgard Exchange Vows

Grace Methodist Church, Charleston, S.C., was the setting for the wedding at 3 p.m., January 16, of Miss Kay Ellen Kiilsgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kiilsgard of Charleston, S.C., and Captain Paul Moxon Miller II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. John Younginger performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations flanked by candelabra. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length sheath fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves. A wide crushed blue velvet band trimmed the waistline. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a bandeau of white carnations. She carried a white prayer book topped with a nosegay of white carnations.

Capt. Victor Otroszko, Charleston Heights, S.C., served as best man and Richard Martin Kiilsgard, brother of the bride, ushered. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, centered with a tiered cake, was overlaid with a white lace cloth over blue. An arrangement of chrysanthemums and carnations and blue taper completed the decorations.

For traveling the bride wore a white and red suit with matching accessories. The couple will make their home at No. 9 Bagnal Drive, Sumter, S.C.

The bride attended Palmer Business College, Charleston, S.C. Capt. Miller received his B.A. Degree from Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., and is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. A graduate of Officer's Training School, USAF, and a graduate of pilot training, Reese AFB, he is presently at Shaw AFB for orientation in RF 4.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Robert Andrew Miller and daughter, Sherry, Albany, Georgia, and Mrs. William Hanbuth, sister of the groom, of Williamston, Mich.

Serve German Style Goulash

Gerstner Style Goulash is the German version of Hungary's famous hearty stew. The word, "Gerstner," means "gardener" and, appropriately, this goulash includes some of the gardener's produce — onions, carrots and turnips.

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 1/4 cup corn oil | 1/2 teaspoon crushed thyme leaves |
| 1 pound stewing beef, cut in 1-inch cubes | 1/2 teaspoon pepper |
| 2 medium onions, diced | 1 bay leaf |
| 2 beef bouillon cubes | 1 cup pared diced turnip |
| 2 cups boiling water | 1 large carrot, pared, cut in strips |
| 1 teaspoon sugar | 1/2 cup white wine |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 2 tablespoons corn starch |
| | 2 tablespoons water |

Heat corn oil in large skillet. Add beef and onions. Cook over medium heat, browning beef on all sides. Dissolve bouillon cubes in boiling water and pour over meat mixture. Add sugar, salt, thyme, pepper and bay leaf. Cover and simmer 35 minutes. Add turnip and carrot and simmer, covered, 35 minutes or until meat is tender. Pour in wine. Mix corn starch and water and gradually stir into goulash. Bring to a boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Makes 4 servings.

Couple Celebrates Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvill Sr. celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a family dinner Sunday at their home in Waveland.

The table, overlaid with a lace cloth, held a two-tiered anniversary cake trimmed in blue and silver encircled with carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvill, the former Doris Bernard, were married January 23, 1947, in Bay St. Louis First Baptist Church with Rev. John Dearing officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvill have a daughter, Joy, three sons, James Jr., Dave and Donald and a granddaughter.

MISS SARAH ELLIS

Miss Ellis Will Wed Mr. Johnston

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Ellis of Tallahassee, Florida, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, to Jerry Lee Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Johnston of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

Miss Ellis was graduated from Miami Palmetto High School and attended Mississippi State College for Women. She was a graduate from Mississippi State University with a B.A. degree in Social Work. She is employed by the Department of State. Mr. Johnston was graduated from Bay High School and will graduate from Mississippi State University with a B.S. degree in Physical Education. He is a member of the M.S.U. Football Team.

Financial Aid Given Students

Many outstanding young men and women do not continue their formal education beyond high school due to economic reasons. The only possible way that many of them could attend college is through some type of financial aid.

John W. Smith, County Agent in Hancock County, says that a comprehensive aid program is available at Mississippi State University to help students meet their financial needs. The Mississippi State University Financial Aid Office helps worthy and needy students either by a combination of scholarships, grants, loans, and part-time work, or any one of the four sources, depending on the student's need and qualifications.

The family of a student is expected to make a maximum effort to assist the student with college expenses. Financial assistance from the University and other sources should be viewed only as supplementary to the efforts of the family. Financial need is the difference between the amount of money a student and his family can reasonably expect to contribute toward college expenses as well as family financial strength.

The types of financial aid available are academic scholarships, Educational Opportunity grants, National Defense Loans, College Work-Study program and Federally insured loans.

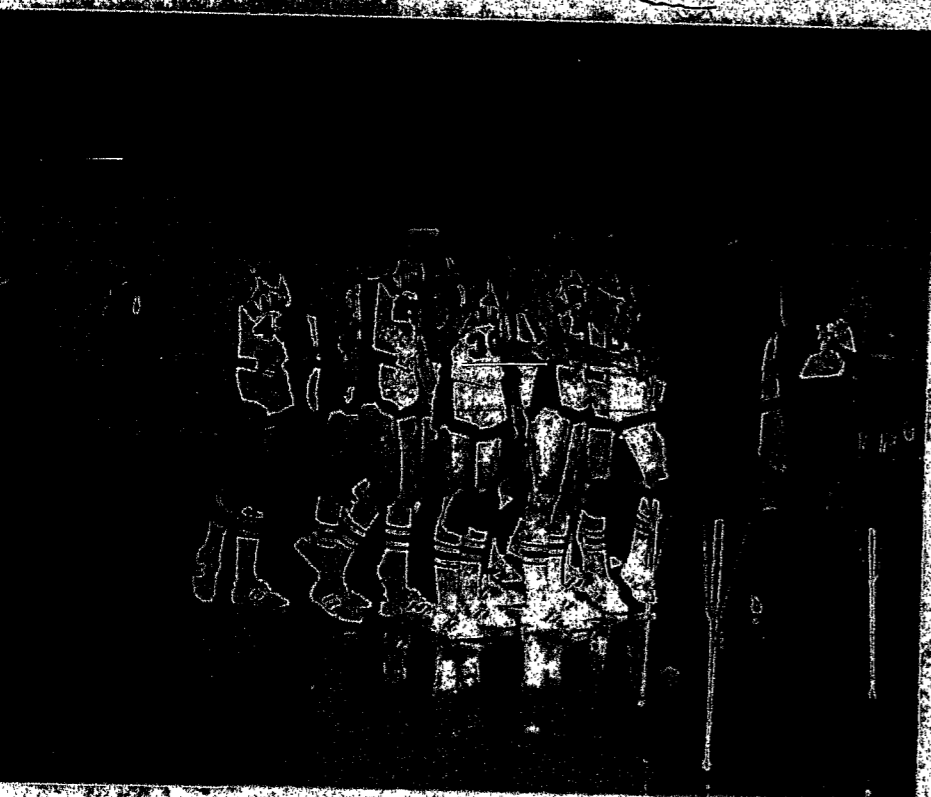

To be eligible for any of these programs, an applicant must have applied for admission or readmission at Mississippi State University. In addition, applicants for the programs must submit a Mississippi State University Financial Aid Application no later than April 1 prior to the fall or spring financial assistance is being requested. Summer applications must be received no later than February 1 prior to the summer term. All applicants must submit an ACT Family Financial Statement to the American College Testing Program.

All applications concerning financial assistance can be obtained by writing to: Director of Student Financial Aid, Drawer AB, State College, Mississippi 39762. In addition, financial aid counseling is available to any student at the office of student aid on the first floor of Magruder Hall. The student aid office telephone number is 325-5455.

All Aliens Must Report Addresses

Troy A. Adams, Jr., District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service said today that aliens in the area have only a short time remaining in which to comply with the Federal law requiring that aliens report their addresses to the Government during January of each year. The Immigration official urged all aliens with a few exceptions, to go as soon as possible to the nearest Post Office or Immigration and Naturalization Service Office to file the report.

Parents or guardians must file the report for alien children under 14 years of age. Adams said the address report is required each year from all aliens except those in diplomatic status and representatives of certain international organizations.

He pointed out willful failure to comply carries serious penalties.

Preparations Made For St. Monica Tea

by Joe Pilet, Public Relations, Trinity Episcopal Church

Preliminary plans for the annual St. Monica Silver Tea were made Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Monroe of 845 East Beach in Pass Christian where the event is scheduled for Friday, February 18 between the hours of three o'clock until five o'clock in the afternoon.

Discussing the plans were Mrs. Fredrick S. Kohl, president of the group; Mrs. Ducros Stouse, chairman for the tea; and Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet who will handle the publicity.

In addition to the hostess and president of the group, the receiving line will include other officers of St. Monica who are - Mrs. John G. McCloskey, vice president; Stanford Morse, treasurer; Olin H. Clark, secretary; and Robert Bird, recording secretary. Mrs. John M. Parker has been appointed to serve as guest registrant. Mrs. Donna Baird accepted chairmanship of the dining room committee and Mrs. Walter Carter is in charge of the invitation committee. Mrs. Carter said: "Invitations are extended not only to members of the Episcopal faith along the

Grace Methodist Chrch, Charleston, S.C., was the setting for the wedding at 3 p.m., January 15, of Miss Kay Ellen Kiilsgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kiilsgard of Charleston, S.C., and Captain Paul Mison Miller II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. John Younginger performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations flanked by candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length sheath-fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves. A wide crushed blue velvet band trimmed the waistline. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a bandeau of white carnations. She carried a white prayer book topped with a nosegay of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, centered with a tiered cake, was overlaid with a white lace cloth over blue. An arrangement of chrysanthemums and carnations and blue tapers completed the decorations.

For traveling the bride wore a white and red suit with matching accessories.

The couple will make their home at No. 9 Bagdad Drive, Sumter, S.C.

extensive storm damages has been done to her home and the slate-roofing was still under repairs. The success of the tea was outstanding and established the current procedure of selecting each year a different and interesting home as an added attraction for guests. Last year the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Hammet was the site of the delightful gathering.

THE MONROE MANSION

The spacious Georgian style mansion built by Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Monroe about six years ago is especially well suited for the ever-growing number of guests who look forward to the St. Monica tea.

Located on an eight acre tract of land with 800 feet facing Pass Christian's East Scenic Drive, there is ample space for off street parking. The grounds are attractively landscaped with natural and informal plantings of such favorites as dwarf pyracantha, glossy leaved English holly, a variety of perennials - and there is the delightful shade and shadow effect of light filtering through live oak and pine trees.

All rooms on the first floor of this 12,000 square foot home will be opened for the pleasure of guests who will find hostesses in each room to welcome them and perhaps assist with information pertinent to the objects of art and furnishings to be found in this well-appointed home.

Aside from the architectural perfection of the exterior of the home, those entering will be aware of the interest created by use of blocks of Vermont stone inlaid checker-board fashion on the steps and vestibule.

The heavy double-entrance door features a fan-shaped window and the foyer's focal point of interest is a triple arch supported by modified Greek columns with beautifully carved capitals reflecting both Doric and Corinthian influence.

"This work," explained Mrs. Monroe, "was done in New Orleans and is somewhat typical of New Orleans woodcraft." The columnar effect across the entire foyer is balanced on the South with Oriental blue-on-white shoulder high vases. In the oval stairwell is an exquisite amber glass chandelier elaborately sculptured with winged cherubs and figurines. The six-sided lighting fixture ends with a pineapple finial.

Most of the appointments throughout the Monroe home are the result of many visits to antique dealers and auctions held in the East. The extraordinarily beautiful Chinese rug in the living room features delicately woven designs of fan, urns, and flowers in blue shades against a soft muted rose with beige tones. Possibly the most outstanding feature in the living room is the fire-place with an ornate white Italian marble mantel delicately sculptured with bas-relief figures portraying characters familiar in Greek Mythology. There is, for example, a striking likeness of Pegasus, the winged horse, said to have been born from the trickling blood of beheaded Medusa. This horse was later tamed by the Goddess Athena and when his hoof struck against a mountain, a beautiful fountain burst forth with such rhythmic flow of water until poets were inspired. This rare mantel facing probably came from an old New Orleans mansion and while the exact origin is unknown to the Monroes, they do recall it was purchased from Rothschilds on Royal Street after having been in that establishment some eighty years without a buyer. Above the mantel is a painting "The end of the Sea Gulls," a work of Mrs. Joyce Hollingsworth Barkley completed in 1966.

Couple Celebrates Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvill Sr. celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a family dinner Sunday at their home in Waveland.

The table, overlaid with a lace cloth, held a two-tiered anniversary cake trimmed in blue and silver encircled with carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvill, the former Doris Bernard, were married January 25, 1947, in Bay St. Louis First Baptist Church with Rev. John Dearing officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvill have a daughter, Joy, three sons, James Jr., Dave and Donald and a granddaughter.

Miss Ellis Will Wed Mr. Johnston

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Ellis of Tallahassee, Florida, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, to Jerry Lee Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Johnston of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

Here it is the end of January and there has been very little cold weather. Thank goodness for the average person, but for hunters it was not too good for hunting. Let's forget about it as most hunting seasons are over with the exception of rabbits, snipe, quail, woodcock and geese, which go into February. Wild turkey hunting will be during March and April. Don't forget that opossum and Raccoons can be hunted the year around under different conditions. They can be killed with dogs except during the turkey season. No limit. Snipe and woodcock is statewide. The season ends on February 28th.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK. VINCENT CUCINELLA is a frequent Waveland visitor. He enjoys his fishing and catches mostly speckles and flounders. Vincent enjoys his friends, too.

From now on most hunters will return to fishing which season runs the year round. There is a limit on fresh water fish. The limit on bass is 15 per person and on perch 100 in the aggregate.

As reported before the best months for soft shell crabs and flounders are March and April but they can be gotten from then on during the summer months. As a reminder real sports only pick up decent size soft crabs. Leave the smaller ones alone, they will get larger if not disturbed.

Drowning is a big killer of tots. About one-eighth of all fatal accidents among preschool children are attributable to drowning. From statistics half the persons in the United States can't swim. There is no reason for this with all the Red Cross classes and other media available to everyone free of charge. It is disgusting to hear a grown man (especially a fisherman), say he can't swim.

Fishing is getting better day by day. All that is needed is for the waters to clear up. With no more rain and rising tides - salt water will get into our streams and this will remedy that condition. Bass and perch have been hitting better the past two weeks. They are being caught in most inland lakes and the head of many bayous.

We caught 15 bass over the weekend and a few perch. Perch fishing will improve right

Officers Named

At its Annual Meeting in Gulfport on January 18, 1972, members of the Gulf Regional Planning Commission reelected for another term the complete slate of incumbents.

Elected for a new term as Chairman was Milton B.E. Hill, an architect and engineer from Gulfport. Mr. Hill breaks all records for officers of the Commission, having served three consecutive terms as Chairman when the Commission was first activated, and being returned this time for his fifth one-year term.

Jon Bennett of Pascagoula was reelected Vice Chairman. Mr. Bennett has been a member of the Commission since 1967, and concurrently serves as an official of the Jackson County Planning Commission.

Elected to a second consecutive term as Treasurer was Buddy S. Broadway, a civil engineer of Piquette. Mr. Broadway is also a charter member of the Commission, having served since activation of the Commission in 1968.

The Commission is engaged in a continuing program of comprehensive planning for Hancock, Harrison, Jackson and Pearl River Counties, and serves as local agent for the Mississippi State Highway Department in the conduct of the Gulf Coast Area Transportation Study, now nearing completion. Offices of the Commission are presently located in Building No. 39, U.S. Navy Seabee Center, Gulfport, Mississippi.

Youth Court Referee Speaks To Parents

Attorney Michael Haas was guest speaker at North Bay Elementary School P.T.A.'s January meeting.

Mr. Haas gave an informative discussion on the problems facing our youth which are brought before the court. He told the group of facilities now available and showed plans for the enlargement of the youth detention center.

During the business session it was suggested a goal of $1,000 be set to be given Mr. Sills, North Bay Principal, for the purchase of badly needed health and physical education equipment. Funds for the project will come from money raising campaigns now in formative stages.

A volunteer committee, composed of Madeline Woody Alliston, Roger Stewart, Cecil Powell, Sam Farve, William Brown, Robert McDonald and Frank Wheat, will present their ideas on ways of raising the funds at the February 4 meeting.

A new flag donated at the last meeting by American Legion Post 128 is now flying from the pole in front of North Bay.

Membership cards were distributed by Roger Stewart to the 36 P.T.A. members who have paid their dues.

Mrs. Alliston's second grade won the attendance plaque and candy.

All parents are asked to attend the next meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m., February 4 in the cafeteria.

First Of A Kind

ALBANY, TENN. — The first dental educational program of any kind in the Eastern Tennessee hill country has begun in seven counties in the area by volunteer dentists and assistants of Project Concern.

Project Concern, an international medical service organization, has facilities in Hong Kong, Vietnam, Mexico, New Mexico and Appalachia.

The program brings a modern, fully equipped dental van to schools in the Pleasant Valley area of Tennessee and is in daily operation from 9 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

Within the unit teeth are cleaned, filled and extracted while complete dental education and instruction is given to the patients from the local schools. In addition, six day care centers are visited regularly where the hygienist does classroom demonstration and lectures to cooks and teachers.

"We give each patient a hygiene kit containing a toothbrush, soap, wash cloth and a comb for many of them have never owned a toothbrush before," said Dr. Paul Gahan, local dental director of the project.

The dentists treat some 500 patients monthly and about 80 percent return for additional work at costs ranging from nothing to $1.00.

The objectives of the program are to provide educational incentives to students to brush their teeth, showing with visual aids and graphics the dangers of poor teeth care. "The purpose of the project is to help the children and adults in the deprived and depressed areas for many cannot afford to see dentists or doctors," said Miss Pat Thatcher, oral hygienist who has worked on the program for one year.

The plan has been well received by parents and students alike for the van arrival is an occasion but more importantly, their own living conditions are being improved.

"The van has really come to our rescue," said Steve Daniels, Principal of the Pleasant Valley School, "for the students have regular brushing here every day and hopefully at home."

"Project Concern has been an invaluable aid to my students," said Daniels. "When the second van is in use we will be visited weekly by the dentists and this should maintain the standard of dental health now established within the schools."

This program is the first in a series of dental educational efforts to be established by the medical service organization with the second underway for Navajo Indians on the reservation at Bluff, New Mexico.

BASIS OF AWARD: The award, if made, will be made to the lowest qualified bidder on the basis of published quantities. Plans and Specifications are on file in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Hancock County at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, and in the office of the State Aid Engineer, United Gas Building, Jackson, Mississippi.

Plans and Proposals may be secured from John Rutherford, Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi, upon payment of $20.00 which will not be refunded. Certified check or bid bond for five percent of the total bid payable to HANCOCK COUNTY and THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI must accompany each proposal.

The attention of bidders is directed to the State and Federal Laws governing selection of and employment of labor. Minimum wage rates for this project have been predetermined by the U. S. Department of Labor in accordance with requirements of Federal Regulations governing the expenditures of Federal Aid Highway Funds and are set out in the labor regulations contained in the Proposal.

Bidders attention is directed to Form A-1, Non Collusion Affidavit, in the proposal. Failure to fill out, properly sign and notarize this affidavit will disqualify the bid.

Bidders are hereby notified that any proposal accompanied by letters qualifying in any manner the condition under which the proposal is tendered will be considered an irregular bid and such proposal will not be considered in making the award.

Literary Club Plans Magazine

The Literary Club is one of the more recent clubs at Bay Senior High. It began in the school year of 1969 as a petition that was manuscript accepted by the student body. The first meeting elected Norris Sumrall, the club's originator, as editor-in-chief, and Douglas McQueen as the club's permanent sponsor.

In essence, the club's main objective is to publish the school's magazine—Literatus Exades. This magazine contains short stories, essays, humorous anecdotes and, of course, "day-living" poetry. A very exciting aspect of this year's magazine is the addition of original-unnatural photographs. The club is also responsible for the article found in the Sea Coast Echo, "Your Public Schools." All of these creative efforts are donated to the magazine by Bay High Students.

This year's staff consists of Eileen Howe, editor-in-chief; Dianne Haymond, junior editor; Bobby Sanford, anecdotes chairman; Yolande Bradley, essays chairman; Leja Rutherford, short stories chairman; Ken Haybourn, poetry chairman; and Shelly Singleton, photography chairman. Through the coordinated efforts of Mr. McQueen and heads of each material committee, the submitted material is either accepted or rejected. Any Bay High student interested in entering material to the Literatus Exades, should have all submissions in by no later than April 3.

A BARGAIN... A REAL VALUE IS NOT A MATTER OF PRICE ALONE!

It's what you get for what you pay.

The house dress or shift at $1.98 is no bargain if the seams pop the first time you wear it or it shrinks inches the first time you wash it.

A cheap product just for the sake of low price is no bargain. A quality product at a low price, that's a bargain... that's our A&P Brands.

More than a century ago we decided our own brands would be our finest values.

They are...and we're proud of it.

So proud...so sure, we unconditionally guarantee your full satisfaction.

Are A&P Brands a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferguson, are cordially invited to a wedding reception, at their home at Necaise Crossing. It will be held, on Sunday, Feb. 6, at 2 p. m. No cards will be sent out, so please take this as your personal invitation. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were married in December, in Belle Chaise, La. Mrs. Ferguson is the former Janet Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Harold Hart, of Belle Chaise, La. Mr. Ferguson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D.

Ferguson, of Necaise Crossing. You are cordially invited to a baby shower, for Mrs. (Minnie-Lou) Jimmy Dale Cuevas, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Necaise, on Ladner Road. It will be held this Sunday, 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Breaux, of Baldwin, La. spent the week with us last week. They were here for the birthday of their grand-son, Bryan, who celebrated his first birthday on January 15.

Mr. and Mrs. James Candabul, announce the arrival of their third child, and second son, James Douglas. He was born on January 15 at Olen Crosby Memorial Hospital in Picayune. He weighed in at 9 lbs. and 6 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brister, and children, of Moss Point, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cuevas, and daughters, Brenda and Darlene. Mrs. Hazel Maufrey, mother of Mrs. Lee Cuevas, and Mrs. Jerry Brister, returned to her home in Pascagoula, on Sunday, with the Bristers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods, of Pascagoula, announce the arrival of their third child, and second daughter, Theresa Marie, was born on January 17, in the hospital in Poplarville. She tipped the scales at 8 lbs. and 7 ozs. Maternal grand-parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schlautman, of Lumberton, and paternal grand-parents, are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Woods, of White Cypress.

My niece, Susan Tison, of Baldwin, La. is spending some time with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Woods, and daughter, Ruth, spent the day Saturday, in Poplarville, visiting Mr. Woods' mother, Mrs. Beale Woods, who is in the nursing home.

Going to Jackson, last Tuesday for the inauguration of Gov. Bill Waller, from this end of the county, were Mr. and Mrs. James Roster, and son, Norman, Keith Dossett, and Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Keller, all from Lelown; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Breaux, and daughter, Christine, and Wayne Ladner, of Delisle. At the reception that afternoon, Gov. and Mrs. Bill Waller, shook hands with all the guests. I'm sure there were over a thousand people there. It was held in the old capital. That night the youth ball was held in the Heidelberg Hotel and the adult ball was held in the Coliseum. Mr. Roster, Mr. Keller, and Mr. Breaux are colonels on the Gov.'s staff, and the ladies, are lady colonels. Norman Roster, Keith Dossett, and Christine are Jr. colonels.

BIRTHS

Elizabeth has been chosen as the name for Mr. and Mrs. Barry Lee Bell's daughter who was born January 23, in the John Kennedy Hospital of Philadelphia. Elizabeth's mother, the former Barbara Ayres Allen, attended grade school in St. Joseph's Academy of Bay St. Louis, high school in Gulfport and was graduated from Mississippi Southern, later receiving her Masters from Temple University in Philadelphia. The Bells now live at 12007 Walden Drive in Philadelphia and have as their guest Elizabeth's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet.

Youth is not a time of life - It is but a state of mind - It is not a matter of ripe cheeks - red lips - or supple knees - It is a temper of the will - A quality of the imagination - A vigor of the emotion - It is the freshness of the deep spring of life.

Youth means a temperamental over age timidity - The appetite of adventure over the love of ease - This often exists in a man of fifty more than in a boy of twenty.

Nobody grows old merely by living a number of years - People grow old only by deserting their ideals.

Years wrinkle the skin - But to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul.

Worry - Doubt - Self-distrust - Fear and Despair - These are the long, long years that bow the heart and turn the greenening spirits back to dust.

Whether sixty or sixteen there is in every human being's heart the lure of wonder - the sweet amazement of the stars and star-like things and thoughts - the undaunted challenge for events - the unflinching child-like appetite for "What's Next" and the joy of the game of living. You are as young as your faith - And as old as your doubt - As young as your hope and as old as your fear - As young as your self-confidence and as old as your despair

In the central place of your heart there is an evergreen tree. It's name is love - So long as it flourishes you are young - But when it dies you are old - In the central place of your heart there is also a wireless station - So long as it receives messages from Beauty - Hope - Grandeur - Courage - Power from the earth - From men and from the infinite, so long are you young. - But when all the wires are down and the central place of your heart is covered with the snow of cynicism and the ice of pessimism - Then you are growing old - Even at twenty - And may God have mercy upon your soul.
